

Traffic Safety Board Report

The Columbia County Traffic Safety Board met at the Emergency Operations Center at the Public Safety Building in Hudson on March 26, 2015.

New speed limit signs are scheduled to be installed on Route 9H north of the Kinderhook round-about this spring. The speed limit from the round-about northward for a distance of 2 tenths of a miles is 35 mph, and from that point to the Columbia/Rensselaer county line the speed limit is 50 mph.

The next meeting of the Columbia county Traffic Safety Board is our annual dinner meeting which will be held at Miller's Tavern on May 28, 2015.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Swartz
CCTSB Representative for the Town of Taghkanic
CCTSB Recording Secretary
